

SANDY YOZVIAK (Cathy) is thrilled to return to the Narberth stage for this benefit performance after performing such roles as Emma in Jekyll & Hyde, Lina Lamont in Singin' in the Rain, Hedy LaRue in How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, and most recently, Sally Brown in You're a Good Man Charlie Brown. Sandy has performed with many local theaters in and around the Philadelphia area. Favorite roles include: My Fair Lady (Eliza Doolittle), Evita (Eva Peron), Carousel (Julie Jordan), Guys and Dolls (Adelaide), and Into the Woods (Cinderella). Sandy has performed with the Peter Nero and Philly POPS Festival Chorus and various professional and benefit cabarets in the area. Sandy also has commercial and screen credits. Most recently she was featured in M. Night Shyamalan's, The Happening, due out June 13, 2008. Sandy is a resident of Conshohocken and works as a third grade teacher in the Lower Merion School District.

CHRIS DI MEO (Jamie) is excited to be back on the Narberth stage. Chris has been singing, acting and dancing since he was 16 years old. He began in his high school gospel choir and soon began singing in casinos and beauty pageants in the Atlantic City, NJ area where he was born and raised. After receiving a business and economics degree from Rutgers University: Cook College, Chris moved to New York City to further study voice and dance. After a few years in NYC, he moved to the Philadelphia area where he has lived for the past 9 years. During the day, Chris works for HRH of Philadelphia, one of the Top Ten insurance brokerage firms in the world. He has been in several theater productions throughout the Philadelphia and New Jersey areas such as You're a Good Man Charlie Brown (Charlie Brown), Singing In The Rain (Cosmo Brown) and Hello Dolly (Cornelius), just to name a few. Chris has sung with Peter Nero and the Philly Pops and has recently recorded a Christian music CD entitled "Jesse Padgett: REINVENTED". See more at www.jessepadgett.com

JOHN GRECIA is a full-time musician in every sense of the phrase. Since beginning piano at the age of ten, he has been consistently performing, composing, accompanying, and directing rock, classical, Broadway, and jazz. A graduate of the School of Music at West Chester University, John is director of music at St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Ardmore, PA. and accompanist for the choirs at St. Joseph's University and West Chester University. On the other side of the coin, John is a prominent local singer/songwriter and leader of John Grecia Band: a four-piece rock group that plays primarily original music throughout the Tri-state area and beyond. John Grecia Band was recently a featured band of the 2007 Sundance Film Festival held in Park City, Utah. The band is currently recording their debut album to be released in Spring 2008. Now a resident of Broomall, John was a long time member of Narberth Community Theater throughout the 90's and is delighted to be back to be a part of this wonderful production! Find John on the web: www.myspace.com/johngrecia or www.myspace.com/johngreciaband.
